March 21, 2009

On site registration begins at 8:30am (Please register ahead)

Toftrees Golf Resort and Conference Center

1 Country Club Lane

State College, PA 16803

814-234-8000 or www.toftrees.com

Fun and Good Eats on a Shoestring!

REGISTER TODAY for a fun and educational day out with Lama Friends at a reasonable price.

Dr. Jeffrey Lakritz from Ohio State University Vet School and ICI will be updating us on the current protocol for deworming, vaccinations, barn first aid kit, and skin issues along with informing us about ICI.

Marsha Timmerman and Cathy Cooley will awe us with the beauty of the Falkland Islands where they spent a month observing the wild guanacos.

Carol Reigh, Pat McKinney, and Sue Shoop will demo making a lead rope. Come see how to make good use of that "not so good fiber" you have spun or have on hand.

Don't forget the Silent Auction items to bid on, there's sure to be a gift for you and your llamas!! All money raised will go to research! Donate and Bid Often!! Its lots of fun, donations may be brought along to the meeting or sent to Linda Dellmyer, PO Box 51, Revere, Pa. 18953.

Lunch will be served and the general membership meeting held.

A block of rooms is available at the Toftrees for $69 a night until Feb. 20, 2009. Be Sure to REQUEST THE PLAA BLOCK OF ROOMS. Come Friday night and enjoy dinner (at your expense) at the Down Under Steak House. Make reservations early!! Go to the website above for directions or call. They also have golf packages, 4 lighted tennis courts, heated pool, sand volleyball, and a fitness center.

The United Nations has declared this the Year of Natural Fiber so come dressed with some of your natural fiber creations, display them on a special table, or donate them for the Silent Auction!
